OBJECTIVE

My professional experience spans roles as a Research Assistant, Tutor, and Assistant Property Officer, where I honed my project management, data analysis, and communication skills. I have successfully led initiatives like the development of virtual reality educational tools, composed story plots for the projects and collaborated with stakeholders to deliver impactful results. Fluent in English, Cantonese, and Mandarin, with intermediate German, I thrive in multicultural and interdisciplinary settings. My ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously reflects my adaptability and organizational skills. Passionate about technology and its capacity to foster creativity and connection, I am eager to bring my talents to innovative and dynamic environments.
